AMUSEMENT NOTES.

Howe's Pictures at Opera House Tuesday Evening, Oct. 3.

To see a blind man enjoying himself at Lyman H. Howe's travel festival as thoroughly as anyone gifted with perfect sight seems inexplicable. Nevertheless the manager of Mr. Howe's production which comes to the Barre opera house Tuesday, Oct. 3, relates that a man who is totally blind attends Mr. Howe's attraction on every visit to one of the largest cities in Massachusetts. Regardless of blizzards, rainstorms or the most unpleasant weather, he has not missed a single visit of Lyman H. Howe's attraction to his city for the last ten years. He is always one of the earliest arrivals and invariably occupies the same seat. He finally aroused the manager's curiosity to such an extent that the latter sought an introduction and asked him what features of the program he found most interesting. The blind man said "All of them" and then explained how and why he was so well entertained. He was a musician and as Mr. Howe's pianist displays such admirable judgment and taste in playing and adapting music to exactly suit every scene and incident, the blind man derived his pleasure from "seeing" each picture as interpreted by the music accompanying it. What pleased him so well was not only the skill and art of the pianist but also because the music was so appropriate that it clearly suggested to the blind man what scenes were being portrayed, and his native intelligence did the rest.

"Forty-Five Minutes From Broadway."

No more capable or better equipped organization will be sent on tour this season than the company presenting the brilliant New York, Chicago and Boston success, "Forty-five Minutes From Broadway." George M. Cohan's original play with music; said by many to be the most pretentious effort of this industrious and ambitious actor-author, and which comes to the Barre opera house for one night, Wednesday, October 4.

"Forty-five Minutes From Broadway" is in three acts, all of the scenes being laid in different parts of the suburban town of New Rochelle, N. Y., which is three quarters of an hour from Broadway in New York City—hence its title.

While "Forty-five Minutes From Broadway" cannot be regarded wholly as a musical comedy, some of the most popular songs that have yet come from the pen of this prolific and tireless composer such as "Mary Is a Grand Old Name," "So Long Mary," "I Want to Be a Popular Millionaire," and many others are rendered during the progress of the play.

What is usually termed the "chorus" in this style of entertainment consists in this production of eight young women, who in personal beauty, clever dancing and vocal accomplishments atone for any possible lack of numbers.

Mr. Cohan followed none of the well beaten paths of dramatic construction in writing "Forty-five Minutes From Broadway"; but departing from conventional lines by combining most effectively in this instance, comedy, farce, melodrama and music, with the result of achieving an entertainment as interesting and enjoyable as it is unique and original. The unfolding of the plot requires more novel characters than Mr. Cohan has yet introduced in any of his other plays, and many of these are types not hitherto presented behind the footlights.

"Alma, Where Do You Live?"

Lovers of rollicking and clean farce and good music should not miss Joe Weber's production of "Alma, Where Do You Live?", which comes to the opera house next Thursday, Oct. 5, for an engagement of one night, will be the first presentation here in English garb of the one great musical farce success that New York experienced in many seasons. It has all the elements for popular success in the American wit and humor that George V. Hobart has injected into the book and lyrics, eliminating at the same time the many objectionable features contained in the original. The music is almost too well known for comment, the strain of "Alma, Where Do You Live?" having been one of the most popular song successes in New York, while the piece was playing a long engagement there at Mr. Weber's theatre.

RANDOLPH.

Death in New York City of Mrs. Ella (Bancroft) Goodwin, Native of Plainfield.

Mrs. Ellen Blanchard received a telegram the last of the week, announcing the death of Mrs. Ella (Bancroft) Goodwin in New York, after an illness of several weeks with acute Bright's disease. Mrs. Goodwin was the niece of Mrs. Blanchard and has usually passed her summers here, and in this village has many friends who will regret to learn of her death. Mrs. Goodwin was the daughter of Clarkson and Emily (Hood) Bancroft and was born in Plainfield about 30 years ago. When quite young, her parents went to Boston to live and there she entered a high school, from which she was graduated, and was fitted for teaching, but soon developed a talent for miniature painting of unusual order, and went from there to New York, where she was employed in many of the first studios in the city. During her entire life she followed her chosen and much loved work. Mrs. Goodwin was twice married and is survived by one son by the first marriage, Floyd Clarkson Bancroft, who lived in New York with her, and two sisters, Mrs. Julia (Bancroft) Russ and Miss Emily Eugenie Bancroft, both of whom also live in New York. The funeral was held from the home of her sister on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Dr. E. O. Blanchard and Mrs. Thomas Fitch are cousins of Mrs. Goodwin.

Mrs. Ellen Blanchard and her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Fitch, have returned from a several days' visit in Barre.

W. A. McIntosh, who has been in Montpelier most of the time for the last year, returned here Saturday to remain in his home for the present.

Miss Theresa Moore, who attempted suicide last week, was taken to Waterbury for treatment in the hospital there for a time, on Friday night.

Mrs. Emma Davis, who has been passing the summer with Mrs. Ellen Lattimer, left Saturday for Lynn, Mass., where she will pass the winter.

Lyman Hutchinson went to Melrose Highlands Saturday to remain a week with his daughter, Mrs. Carl Thresher, and family.

Miss Lulu Rye, who is an attendant in the Waterbury hospital, arrived here Saturday for a vacation of two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Rye.

A football game was played at McCall's park last Thursday by the Whitcomb high school team and the Randolph team, which resulted in a victory for the Whitcomb team, the score being 5 to 0.

Misses Jennie and Irene Granger of Lynn, Mass., who had been here for several weeks, returned to their home on Saturday, taking with them Mrs. Mary Mann to remain for about a month with them in their home.

Preparations for the state Christian Endeavor meeting are now nearly completed, and the first session occurs in Chandler Music hall on Tuesday evening, where all the evening sessions will convene. Wednesday meetings will be held in the Baptist church and Thursday's in the Bethany church.

A large crowd arrived here Friday night to confer the degrees at a meeting of Modern Woodmen, held in grange hall that evening. The work done by them was of a high order, and following the initiation a banquet was served and the visitors left on the night train for their homes. With the 130 resident members and the visitors, the hall was filled to overflowing.

Rev. John A. Lawrence began a three weeks' vacation last week. During his vacation, services will be held at the Congregational church as usual.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley C. Wilson returned Friday from a week's visit to the former's brother, Dr. Robert B. Wilson, and wife of Red Bank, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Denmore, who had been the guests of the former's parents for a week, left Friday afternoon for their home in Concord, N. H.

Charles F. Button, who resides on the west hill, was one of the successful exhibitors from this town at the state fair, having received second premium on his stallion and also premiums on his turkeys.

Ernest A. Corwin returned the first of the week from Boston, where he had been to purchase fall and winter goods for the firm of J. A. B. Corwin & Son. He was accompanied by Mrs. Corwin, who visited friends.

The New Chelsea Dramatic company has purchased for one year the acting rights of the four act comedy drama, entitled, "The Country Constable," and they purpose to present the same at the local opera house, Thanksgiving evening.

The many friends here of Miss Choroene Barnes will be pained to learn that she is seriously ill in New York City and that her mother, Mrs. E. D. Barnes, who was visiting friends in Massachusetts, has been called to New York by reason of her illness.

Halsey Durkee, a graduate of Chelsea high school in the class of 1910, who has since graduated from the Albany Business college and is now employed as bookkeeper in Troy, N. Y., was in town the first of the week and was the guest of his uncle, Charles R. Durkee.

Tuesday evening, October 3, there will be a special meeting of Woodmen's camp at Denmore's hall at 7 o'clock sharp. At this meeting the state deputy from St. Johnsbury and the state lecturer from Montpelier will be present and the work of conferring the degrees will be exemplified by a degree team from the Montpelier camp. Every member is expected to be present. The hour between 8 and 9 o'clock will be devoted to a smoke talk to which the public generally are admitted.

Fred Aldrich of Post Mills came here early in the week to have some teeth extracted and, following the extraction, also suffered a severe hemorrhage, which came near resulting fatally. He is stopping at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lyman D. Parkhurst, on South Main street and is regaining his strength rapidly. His mother, Mrs. Truman Aldrich, was sent for at the time of the hemorrhage.

News has been received here of the marriage of Carol P. Little of Fitchburg, Mass., to Miss Florence M. White of Marlboro, N. H., on Wednesday, Sept. 23. The groom was a former Chelsea boy, being the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip J. Little. His brother, Charles Little, acted as best man. Since leaving Chelsea, both the groom and his brother have learned the machinists' trade and have both become master workmen in their line.

Mrs. Wales Moulton died at her home on the west hill, Wednesday, Sept. 20, at the age of sixty-eight years, from the effects of chronic inflammation of the stomach and bowels. The funeral was held from her late home on the Friday following and the interment was in the cemetery near Harry O. Flint's in Tunbridge, Rev. J. A. Lawrence officiating. She is survived by her husband, two sons, R. W. and Morris Moulton and one daughter, Mrs. Charles Grant, who reside in Williamstown, Randolph and North Tunbridge, respectively.

HANCOCK.

Rev. Mr. Smithers, the presiding elder, occupied the pulpit here Sunday.

Miss Josephine Taylor is working in the family of Albert Murray in Warren.

Mrs. Ella Buttles is spending a week with her daughter, Mrs. Earl Hanks, in Warren.

Mr. and Mrs. Orvel Hanks moved to Pittsfield, where Mr. Hanks will work for a lumber company.

Miss Bernice Eaton and Miss Hallie Marsh were home from Granville to attend the social Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Riley of Granville visited at Elmer Goodyear's Wednesday and attended the social in the evening.

Fred Luce of Pittsfield was at John Buttles' Wednesday and Thursday, moving the goods of Mr. and Mrs. Orvel Hanks.

There was a social gathering at the town hall Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Agnes Vose, the deaconess, who returned to her home in Maine on Saturday. Amusing games were played, there were puzzles to guess and a good time was enjoyed by all. Miss Vose favored the company with singing, and the pastor, Rev. O. B. Wells, made a few interesting remarks. It was voted to hold a social affair of this kind once each month and Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Spencer were elected to furnish the literary entertainment.

ANNOUNCEMENT

After several unsuccessful attempts to purchase a milk route in Barre, we have decided to retail milk and cream on and after Monday, Oct. 2. We understand the care of milk and cream, as we had the management of the Morrison Farm and milk trade four years previous to Oct. 15, 1905. We were also in the employ of L. B. Dodge for a time. For the past five years we have sold our milk for the retail trade most of the time.

Our herd consists of young, healthy stock and are mostly grade Jerseys. We are remodeling our barn and purpose to have a sanitary and up-to-date plant. By using the best of goods and close attention to business, we hope to merit a share of the public patronage.

Why is the soda cracker to-day such a universal food?

People ate soda crackers in the old days, it is true—but they bought them from a barrel or box and took them home in a paper bag, their crispness and flavor all gone.

To-day there is a soda cracker which is the recognized staple — Uneeda Biscuit.

Uneeda Biscuit are the most nutritious food made from flour and should be eaten every day by every member of the family from the youngest to the oldest.

Uneeda Biscuit—soda crackers better than any ever made before—made in the greatest bakeries in the world—baked to perfection—packed to perfection—kept to perfection until you take them, oven-fresh and crisp, from their protecting package.

STATE OF MINNESOTA, } ss.
COUNTY OF STEELE, }
I, Richard Jahreiss, of Owatonna, Minn., being first duly sworn, do say that I am the person named in and who subscribed the following statement and the same is true of my own knowledge, in every particular: "I had severe pains in my right side, just above the Appendix. I went to the doctor and he pronounced my case Appendicitis and advised an operation. Instead I went to Zamboni Bros. Drug Store and bought a bottle of (Adler's-Ka) treatment. After taking it the result was indeed wonderful. The pains stopped and I felt like a new man. I heartily recommend (Adler's-Ka) treatment to anyone troubled with Appendicitis, as I know it has cured me." (Signed) RICHARD H. JAHREISS.

State Seal. Subscribed and sworn to before me June 29, 1905. J. NEWSALT, Notary Public, Steele County.

Appendicitis is becoming more and more, and everyone should know of this wonderfully successful treatment. A valuable book, showing many pictures of that cruel and little known organ, the human Appendix, and telling how Appendicitis is caused, how it can be treated without operation, and how you can easily guard yourself against it, will be given FREE to anyone calling at our store.
